MESSAGE FROM CTA

You And Us And We Can Change The World.

"I've learned that people will forget what You said, people will forget what You did, but people will never forget how You made them feel."

- Maya Angelou

"Here's to the crazy one. The misfits, the rebels, the troublemakers. The round pegs in the square holes. The ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules. You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify or vilify them. About the only thing you can't do is ignore them, because they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think that they can change the world, are the ones who do."

- Steve Jobs

A journey of more than two decades, into creating the group has been a very fulfilling one for all of us who created it and for those who are served. VALUE CREATION

VISION 2028+ : BUILDING ON STRENGTHS

Presenting The Overarching Vision For The Organization In 2028 And Beyond

In January 2017 American Precoat announced its strategy programme for the next ten years. The strategy is based on a strong foundation built by American Precoat over the last two decades. The strategy programme is oriented to accelerate the shifting of American Precoats portfolio to speciality science and performance material products and more stable and higher earnings.

The successful execution of the accelerated Vision 2028 program will result in the continuous evolution of American Precoat into a specialty sciences and materials sciences business. The group will be strongly positioned for growth with the main drivers being derived from market driven innovation and an increasing presence in the world's rapidly developing emerging economies, particularly India. American Precoats ongoing commitment to Operational Excellence remains firmly in place.

Based on its existing leadership position, American Precoat intends to grow its sales in following emerging business areas of specialty protective coatings, material sciences and performance packaging products. The growth will be accelerated by innovation in these respective sectors. Quality performance is a commitment to excellence by each American Precoat employee. It is achieved by teamwork and a process of continuous improvement. We are dedicated to providing quality products and services which meet or exceed the expectations of our customers.

By 2028, American Precoat aims to grow its specialties portfolio. Profitable growth through specialty leadership business, innovation, and geographic growth should lead to an underlying sales growth rate of 25% to 30% annually under an assumed economic scenario and increase over time within this bracket.

To boost innovation, significant additional resources will be made available to the research and development function. More people will be recruited to work in dedicated, business-driven innovation teams.

QUALITY POLICY

Expressing The Organization's Unwavering Commitment To Quality

Safety Health and Environmental Excellence are Fundamental to Demonstrating the Values and Goals of a World Class Company. Based on existing ship positions, American Precoat intends to grow its sales in following emerging business areas of specialty protective coatings, life sciences and performance packaging products. The growth will be accelerated by innovation in these respective sectors. Quality performance is a commitment to excellence by each American Precoat employee. It is achieved by teamwork and a process of continuous improvement. We are dedicated to providing quality products and services which meet or exceed the expectations of our customers.

American Precoat Quality Management System

Purpose

Assuring Quality Is A Multi-Functional Effort Covering Many Aspects Of Operations. It Is A Continuously Improving Process.

- The identification and documentation of customer needs
- The development, manufacture and delivery of products and services to meet those needs consistently
- Feedback from the customer to assess the company's product performance
- Action on the Customer's feedback to improve the group's performance

American Precoat Quality Management System ensures that customers receive quality, reliability and integrity in the products and services American Precoat provides them. Team American Precoat strives to ensure that customers' needs and requirements are met. The system calls for strict adherence to specifications, as well as regulatory and quality requirements.

Product quality is maintained through systems of standardization and process control. Service quality covers all aspects of customer transactions and is ensured by the function that is providing the service. Both product and service quality characteristics are agreed upon by American Precoat and the customer.

The Quality management system is not a stand-alone system. It is integrated with the group's policies, requirements, work practices and the day to day activities of all employees, thereby ensuring safety and quality.

Quality Performance is a commitment to excellence by each member of Team American Precoat. It is achieved by teamwork and a process of continuous improvement. We are dedicated to providing quality products and services which meet or exceed the expectations of our customers.

American Precoat has established quality measurement systems to measure its progress in continuous quality improvement. We monitor progress in each business segment through external and internal customer surveys, auditing and organizational self-assessments, customer complaint and resolution systems, and statistical tools.

- Remove barriers as identified by employees.
- Empower people to make decisions and implement solutions
- Push decision-making down to the lowest possible level.
- Collaborate with the entire work group to develop a mission.

OUR VALUE & ETHICS

Core To World-Class Company Values & Goals

Safety Health and Environmental Excellence is fundamental to demonstrating the values and goals of a world-class company.

Our Approach

Operating out of Noida, India, American Precoat's history can be traced back as far as 1991. Our subsequent development has been the result of organic growth and a carefully planned growth chart with divestments and acquisitions, which has successfully integrated a diversity of companies.

We aim to make sure that our world-class status remains intact.

We aim to make sure that our world-class status remains intact. We owe our success to people. Because of that, the long-term future of the Company is highly dependent on finding the right employees, talented individuals who thrive on challenge and change. To be the best we have to attract the best and the more successful we are in harnessing creative expertise, the more we move forward as a world-class company.

Concern for the environment and the health and safety of our workforce are also critical to successful operations. So constant efforts are made to ensure that there is no negative environmental impact of our products and we work tirelessly to ensure that our employees come to no harm, because nobody goes to work to get hurt.

But what about the outside world? Well, strong links with the community are a long standing American Precoat tradition. At our American Precoat Research Foundation we constantly work towards making the environment more eco-friendly to live in, having developed products which are Low on Carbon Footprints. At our products meet the stringent quality standards as prescribed by European Union and USFDA laws.
